

Sudbury Cycling Club Social Media Policy

“Organization” refers to Sudbury Cycling Club(SCC). Last Reviewed March 2023

Definitions

1. The following items have meanings within this Policy:
 - a. Member–An Individual who has signed up for a Membership with the SCC through online registration

Introduction

2. The SCC has one social media outlet, which is a Facebook page found at: <https://www.facebook.com/Sudbury-Cycling-Club-813206332184541/?ref=bookmarks>
This Facebook page is a private group for current members of the SCC only. Posting on this page is a privilege of having a membership with the SCC.

Eligibility

3. Only current members in good standing are eligible to post on this page. For the purposes of the Facebook page, members are considered to be current.
 - a) From the time they are initially registered as a member of the SCC until Jan 1st of the calendar year following their most recent registration; (if they have not signed up as members again) and
 - b) Have not had their “privilege to post” removed as defined per Section 11 below.

4. Eligibility Duration

At the time one becomes a member, they are on the SCC's contact list, and thus eligible for the Facebook page.

- a) Previous members who have signed up will automatically remain on the SCC's Facebook page unless they have unsubscribed themselves.
- b) If an unsubscribed member wishes to be placed back on, they must contact the Facebook Administrator

Purpose

6. The Facebook Page is provided for the convenience of SCC Members and posts should be confined to matters relating to cycling or the SCC.

Prohibited Activities

7. The following are prohibited:
 - a) Unsanctioned events
 - I. Only SCC sanctioned notices, invitations, or ad hoc rides may be posted on the Facebook page. Events and rides posted on the SCC website at sudburycc.com are considered sanctioned events by the SCC.
 - b) Advertising
 - I. This site is not to be used for advertising, sales, or promotion of products, services or events unless approved by the SCC Board of Directors.

Comments

8. Anything posted on this Facebook page is subject to the SCC's Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy.

Governance

9. The Facebook page is governed by administrators representing the SCC Board of Directors.

Removal of content

10. The administrators, as per Section 9 of this policy, reserve the right to delete any post or comment they consider to be in violation of Sections 5, 6 or 7 of this policy, or of the SCC's Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy.

Removal of members' privilege to remain on the SCC's Facebook page

11. Repeated infractions of Sections 6, 7 & 8 may result in the members' losing the privilege to remain on the SCC's Facebook page.

Duration of Removal

12. The duration of the removal as per Section 11 will be for the remainder of the cycling club season and until the next year the member signs up with the SCC.

Appeal

13. Members may choose to appeal the decision using Sections 14 to 17 of the Discipline and Complaints Policy Statement